

Tomi Rautio, CEO,
Saimaa Terminals

*“ Membership in Shipbrokers Finland
gives us an advantage in marine transportation”*

Networks are a vital aspect of marine logistics. It is good to be able to freely discuss current topics in the field with colleagues and partners. For over 100 years, Shipbrokers Finland has provided a fantastic forum, which is only getting better with time. We definitely need co-operation and advocacy for the entire field. You should join, too!

Tomi Rautio

Join the top network of marine transport professionals

Becoming a member

Well-known bodies with legal capacity that operate in Finland as ship agents, shipbrokers or liner agents are eligible for membership. Applicants must have the necessary familiarity with the field. Join us!

Member benefits

- Advocacy by the association
- Call the Agent event
- Monthly newsletter
- Current member bulletins
- FONASBA Quality Standard
- A wide network of companies in Finland and all over the world

Becoming a partner

Companies, co-operative partners and other parties with ties to association activities and who are willing to network with association member companies can be accepted as partners. Companies eligible for membership cannot be partners, but other actors in marine traffic can. Join the network!

Partner benefits

- Member price for the Call the Agent event
- Monthly newsletter
- Current member bulletins
- A wide network of companies in Finland and all over the world

Why join?

- Together we are more!
- With many small actors in the field, it is good to join forces.
- We need co-operation and advocacy for the entire field to be heard.
- Networking widely helps business.
- Our network includes both big and small, Finnish and global companies with extensive knowledge and good contacts.

The association complies with anti-trust competition law. We do not discuss in association meetings or at seminars on freight prices or terms, individual customer or supplier issues or boycotting, market or customer allocation, or otherwise distortion of competition.

How to join?

Fill out the form at shipbrokers.fi/jasenhakemus/ or contact our General Manager at secr@shipbrokers.fi